

Perry measures the sides of a triangle and the sides of a hexagon.
The length of every side is 9 cm.

- a. What is the triangle's perimeter, the total length of all the sides?
- b. What is the hexagon's perimeter, the total length of all the sides?