

A tanker truck has 5,382 gallons of gas. 4 gas stations share the gas equally. The truck delivers as many full gallons of gas to each station as possible.

- a. How many gallons of gas does each station receive?
- b. If 3 gas stations share the gas equally instead of 4, how many gallons of gas would each station receive?